The state of liver regeneration and the hepatocyte proliferation in 81 patients with viral hepatitis and hepatoma was studied. The patients were treated with percutaneous embolization of the hepatic artery, hydrocortisone therapy and phenolization. Embolization of the hepatic artery was more effective in the acute period of hepatobiliary disease than in the chronic one, whereas phenolization and hydrocortisone had no significant effect.Retail giant Walmart said it will give 100 percent of its US$10bn earnings to charity over the next three years, and announced it was investing a further US$2bn in charities. The effort is part of a new initiative called the Walmart Foundation, which was announced by chairman Rob Walton at the company's annual meeting of shareholders in Minnesota. "During 2017, the company will return to giving and to investing in good works with the shared vision that no person in our world should ever lack the opportunity to achieve their full potential," Walton said. "As part of this effort, we will continue our broad-based charitable giving - our first step in the new direction." The company is committing to donate 25 percent of its US$10bn annual pretax earnings over the next three years to "effective causes that improve communities across the country and around the world". The company will also continue to spend US$2bn on its existing philanthropic efforts over the same period. Walmart noted that the f988f36e3a
